

ALIENIST NAMED TO TEST DOROTHY EXTRA BOSTON AMERICAN NIGHT LATEST STOCKS

VOL. 19—No. 219 BOSTON, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1922 3 CENTS; WORTH IT

PONZI MUST SERVE U. S. SENTENCE

DECLARES PLAN FOR PAROLE FUTILE

Assistant U. S. Attorney Says
Indictments Will Hold
"Wizard" in Jail

Any move to free Charles Ponzi, "Wizard of School Street," from Plymouth House of Correction on parole will be disregarded until all indictments against him in both the State and Federal courts have been disposed of.

Such is the opinion of Joseph V. Carroll, assistant United States district attorney, who has his state Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

OPEN TONIGHT

The Following Stores
Are Open Every

SATURDAY NIGHT

Department Stores

Men's Clothing

Men's Furnishings

Men's Hats and Gloves

Credit Clothing

Men's and Women's Shoes

Furniture

Jewelry

Sporting Goods

Here's your chance to get bungaloed—

That long living room
should lead to real
long life, with fireplace to prevent cold feet. One example of our Classified Ad.
Page profferings.

Read them all!

Girl Who Was Misled
and Accused Man
Norma Gordon, Arthur
E. Balfour and Members of Latter's Family.

ARTHUR E. BALFOUR

BETTING EVEN ON B. C.-H. C.

VALERA QUILTS FIGHT

TELLS OF GORDON'S BROKEN ROMANCE

Back Bay Expert Will Test the Sanity of Heiress and Report to Judge Brayley

Dr. Issard Coriat, of No. 416 Marlboro street, was today chosen to act for the Supreme Court as alienist to examine Dorothy Gordon, heir to $400,000, as to her sanity at McLean Asylum.

Dr. Coriat was agreed upon by counsel for both factions in the guardianship fight which has stirred such widespread public interest of late.

Attorney Robert W. Nason, representing William F. Jardine, Miss Gordon's present temporary guardian and Attorney John L. Sheehan, counsel for the girl's uncle, John D. Gardner of Baldwin, N. Y., who seeks to remove Jardine, conferred today.

The selection of an independent alienist was ordered by Judge Brayley of Supreme Court at the hearing on Gardner's petition for a writ of habeas corpus seeking the liberation of Dorothy from the Waverly institution.

Dr. Coriat, who will be formally commissioned by Judge Brayley on Tuesday, will then examine the girl's findings when the habeas corpus hearing is resumed next Friday.

(For further details of the Dorothy Gordon case see Page Ten.)

Girl Arrested for Smashing Windows of Alleged Betrayer Bares Pitiful Story

"He was the only sweet heart I ever had. I gave him all that a woman could—now I have lost home, sweetheart love and my baby. What is there left?"

Miss Norma Gordon, Roxbury girl, convicted in the Brighton Court of smashing windows in the home of her alleged married betrayer, Arthur E. Balfour of No. 14 Crescent circuit, Brighton, thus sums up the pitiful tale of her shattered romance.

Miss Gordon has been kicked out of her home because of the child which was born four months ago. She declares that her mother told her never to darken the door of her home again. She is now living with friends in Roxbury. She gave birth to a brown-eyed baby boy four months ago. The child, she says, was the son of Balfour. It died last November 8 and was buried on November 10. Since then the girl has set alone in the house of Forest street brooding.

SMASHED WINDOWS. Thanksgiving night she could stand it no longer, she declares, and went to the home of Balfour to talk the matter of the dead child over with him.

"The page of a wronged woman swept over me," she told a Boston American reporter, "and when I was pressed quietly I could stand no more."

(Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

MISS NORMA GORDON, (at top) AND VIRGINIA BALFOUR

The baby shown below is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Balfour of No. 14 Crescent circuit, Brighton.

EMBARGOES OFF ON P. A. R. FOR 72 HOURS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 2.—(By wire) where throughout the entire Pennsylvania Railroad's 11,000 miles of operated trackage, the sky will be the limit for foreign movement beginning this morning, and ending at midnight next Tuesday. All embargoes, restrictions and similar rules are suspended for the next seventy-two hours. The barriers at the Pittsburgh, Oil City and Erie, and Buffalo gateways are also lifted. This temporarily annuls the recent ban on eastbound freight through these points.

—See Box in Christmas Issue

TRUCK LOAD OF HAMS ABANDONED IN NEWTON

Mystery surrounds an abandoned truck, heavily loaded with baked Virginia hams, found on Mt. Vernon street, Newton. The car is registered in the name of Miss Dorothy Fox of No. 14 Jones road, Revere. Residents of Newton told the police they have been haunted recently in purchasing a truck peddler, the hams turning out to be smoked shrimps. Miss Fox said she asked the truck to peddle unknown to her.

—See Box in Christmas Issue

BANK STATEMENT

N. Y. bank clearings, $1,166,000,000

N. Y. bank balances, 188,000,000

Boston bank clearings, 81,000,000

Boston bank balances, 21,000,000

N. Y. F. B. L. credit, 20,000,000

—See Box in Christmas Issue

40,000 SEE HOLY CROSS IN BATTLE WITH B. C.

Forty thousand backers of Boston College or Holy Cross set out for Braves Field today for the annual football battle between the Purple and the Maroon and Gold.

For several reasons this 1922 classic between the two colleges shaped up in advance as a fierce and bitter struggle, a game for blood.

It will decide the football championship of the "Big Four" Jesuit colleges and the Eastern Catholic championship in general.

The teams are closely matched. Betting is even. Any odds given may

(Continued on Page 11, Column 1.)

BRAVES FIELD LINEUP

BOSTON HOLY CROSS

Connerford, L. J. F. Mahoney

Kosloski, L. J. F. Mahoney

Donahue, L. J. F. Mahoney

Healy, E. J. F. Mahoney

Ellery, E. J. F. Mahoney

Darling, L. J. F. Mahoney

O'Connell, E. J. F. Mahoney

Donnellan, E. J. F. Mahoney

Warwick, E. J. F. Mahoney

Greeks in Counter Revolt

Rome, Dec. 2 (By the Associated Press).—A serious Greek counter-revolutionary outbreak has occurred in Patras and Missolonghi, on the Gulf of Patras, in Western Greece, and on the island of Corfu, where the British flag is reported to have been raised, as the result of indignation over the Greek executions, says a message received here from Athens today.

ABANDONS WARFARE IN ERIN

Republican Leader Urges Peace After British Withdrawal

Dublin, Dec. 2.—"I do love my land, and passionately praying that she may change completely her attitude towards Ireland," said the last letter written by Eustace Childers, which was made public here today.

Manchester, Eng., Dec. 2 (By International News Service).—A letter published in the Manchester Guardian today, over the signature of Eamon de Valera, stated that the Republican irregulars would no longer oppose the Irish Free State "with force of arms."

The letter denied that the Irish electorate ever decided in favor of the Free State, and claimed that the Irish electors really favor a republic. He said that the Irish Free State with arms, adding:

"Any decision through a plebiscite taken after the English withdrawal their treaty of war—that is the test whether there is English dictation or whether the Irish people are really free."

The letter indicates that De Valera is still in hiding in or near Dublin. It is dated "Dublin, December 1."

Dublin, Dec. 2 (By International News Service).—Irish Republicans today attacked a British destroyer which went around near Kinsale at the mouth of the Kenmare River, on the southwestern tip of Ireland.

Later advice said that the Irish irregulars were beaten off.

—See Box in Christmas Issue

Bombs Wreck Home of Dr. Thomas Walsh

Belfast, Dec. 2 (By the Associated Press).—Turn Over.

POLICEMAN TRENT IS SENTENCED

Former Patrolman Trent, colored, of Dudley street station, was sentenced today to thirty days in jail for assault with a loaded revolver on Peter MacAdams of No. 102 George street, Roxbury. This was suspended by Judge Brackett, who said he would place the defendant on probation for six months and then dispose of the case.

Trent was accused of having attempted to break into a room occupied by Helen and Margaret MacAdams and then of having fired two shots at his brother when he gave chase.

—See Box in Christmas Issue

JUMPS OFF FIRE TRUCK AND PUTS OUT BLAZE

Leonard, Dec. 2.—An electric flatiron, a wrong number and an outlying driver furnished the fireworks and a few laughs here. The flatiron set fire to a table cloth in the home of Mrs. George P. Jones at No. 17 Orchard street. The wrong number coming over the telephone sent the fireman away to the residence of C. A. Furrer, and the driver, Sidney Harvey, noticed Mrs. Jones waiting to the firemen as they passed her house, stopped his truck and pulled out a pail of water and put the fire out all himself.

—See Box in Christmas Issue

APPEALS $100 FINE FOR HAVING STILL

Frank D. Sullivan of Roadville was found guilty of operating a still to-day in Dedham District Court. He was fined $100 and sentenced to two months. He appealed.

—See Box in Christmas Issue

BARUCH LOANED DEMOCRATS $20,000.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Two loans of $10,000 each by tional Committee, both subsequently canceled by "suit- Bernard M. Baruch of New York to the Democratic National action," were reported today in a final statement of receipts and expenditures in the recent campaign, filed by Wilbur Marsh, treasurer. The statement showed total contributions of $124,074, with bills outstanding of $114,344. For the $124,074, the Republicans, Fred W. Upham reported contributions of $42,817 November 1 to 7, and disbursements $38,860.

SEVERAL QUIT ARMY AND HEADS A PLEBESCU

SOLDIER IN DUBLIN

Continued from First Page.

Free—Bombs were hurled today into the home of Dr. Thomas Walsh of Galway University and chairman of the Urban Council. The missiles shattered windows and tore a large hole in the wall.

It is believed that the demonstration was an outgrowth of Dr. Walsh's refusal to permit the court to discuss the recent executions in Dublin.

23 Republicans Taken in Battle

Dublin, Dec. 2.—Twenty-three Republicans were captured by Free State troops in County Kildare. With the capture of the irregular troops there was also taken several machine guns, a large number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition. The victory of the Free State forces came after a fight following an ambush. In the final skirmish, four Republicans were wounded and a number killed, and one Free State man was killed and one wounded.

Reveal Plot to Kidnap Members of Dail

London, Dec. 2.—Every member of the Dail Eireann has been warned to take special precautions for safety during the week-end in consequence of the report that a plot had been discovered to kidnap them, says a Daily Mail dispatch from Dublin today.

The correspondent adds that it is believed that the roundup of suspects during the surprise searches in Dublin yesterday, a part of the Free State's plan to foil the kidnapping attempt, was completely successful. The National troops are said to have been remarkably active throughout Ireland during the last few days and many prominent Republican leaders have been captured.

HOLD UP TRAIN BUT GET ONLY 12 EGGS

Middleton, N. Y., Dec. 2.—A dozen men were today taken by three men who last night robbed a southbound Ontario & Western express train near Haverstraw, according to railroad detectives. The men fled when discovered by Messenger Trac Avery, who fired three shots at them, none of which took effect. Parole containing valuable was ripped open, the detectives said, but the thieves discarded everything but the eggs.

FINDS HUSBAND IN PRISONS MOUTH JAIL

Pittsford, N. H., Dec. 2.—A pretty twenty-year-old bride is stranded at a local hotel after coming here to meet her husband. She heard only to find that he is in confinement at the New Hampshire State Prison for a three-year sentence for desertion.

The girl, who registered under the name of Ruth Irene Palmer, told the story of a hasty marriage on the early of December 1st, when she had proposed to the sailor she had met in a Chicago dance hall.

BABY DEAD, MOTHER CRITICAL FROM GAS

Fawcett, R. I., Dec. 2.—As a result of inhaling gas fumes from a gas left open by accident, little Philomena Custodio, two years old, is dead, and her mother, Mrs. Frank Custodio, No. 24 Division street, is at the Memorial Hospital in a critical condition. Mrs. Custodio returning home from work, found her husband and baby lying on a bed.

UNCONSCIOUS GIRL FOUND NEAR RIVER

Brightford, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Clara Sherrin, housewife, said daughter of Mrs. Minnie Peters of No. 39 Sherrin street, was found unconscious on Riverside street in West Springfield by a passing car who saw the prostrate form of the girl lying on the bank of the Connecticut River near the highway. Physicians diagnosed the case as a form of hysteria.

COAST GUARD CUTTER ORDERED SUNK

New Bedford, Dec. 2.—The coast guard cutter Duck, under command of the Acushnet, has been ordered from here to the Coast Guard Depot at South Baltimore, Maryland.

Whether the removal is permanent or temporary is not known. Chief Gunner's Mate Fred A. Evans, a native of New Bedford, was ordered to return to his post at the cutter.

EX-SENATOR HOLLS GETS BULGARIA POST

Boston, N. H., Dec. 2.—Former U. S. Senator John F. Hollis, N. H., was today named as being appointed special adviser of the Bulgarian government and chief of mission to the American Bank of that country, according to advices received here.

MOTHER FIGHTS TO KEEP FAMILY

THE STRAITWELL FAMILY

Mrs. Fionn Straitwell, educated herself as a nurse and established a home in Lynn that she might properly bring up her three children (above) John, Elise and James. Straitwell, her husband, inserted above, she says, was domiciled in equal to a backwoods Pennsylvania town and the children were neglected. Now he has appeared at the Lynn home and the children left with him. The police have been asked to find them.

GIRL-MOTHER TELLS OF ALLEGED BETRAYAL

Continued from First Page.

It no longer and smashed some of his windows.

"Then I was arrested and brought into the Brighton court. I was found guilty, but the good judge placed my case on file and let me go free. He is a wonderful judge. He could see beneath the surface of the man."

"It was nearly six years ago that I met Arthur Balfour," she went on. "I met him in a store on George street, Roxbury, where he had sold a soda fountain. He took my telephone number and soon called me in the phone and made a date with me."

"From then on he paid more and more attention to me. I fell in love with him. I thought he was a single man. He was young and good looking, and I was nothing but a young girl. I was happy to have a sweetheart."

"He had such a nice way of sweet me off my feet. Then he started asking me out of town in his automobile on little trips. I used to love those trips. They were bright spots in my young life."

WENT TO PROVIDENCE

"Then he took me to Providence one day in the machine. When night came on he told me that the machine had broken down and could not be fixed in time to get home that night. He persuaded me to stay over night. We stayed at the Narragansett Hotel. That night was the start of my undoing."

"The next morning the car was all right and we came back to Boston. I had tasted life then and it was too late to go back. But I knew that Arthur was the greatest person in the world."

"Then came the day awakening. I knew I was to become a mother. His savings could not be used. He was married and could not marry me. Could not give my child a name. Well, no one can know what I suffered."

"Still I clung to him for his sake."

Was His Own Bank, So He's Robbed of $4,913

One thing Arthur Panagiotopolis could do—save money. One thing he could not do—trust in banks.

His savings of twenty years, $4,913, are gone, stolen by a thief in the night.

Arthur hid his savings in his full store at No. 309 Washington street, Jamaica Plain. On his report of the money being taken the police today sought a former employee.

K. C. COMMISSIONER HONORED BY POPE

Rome, Dec. 2.—Pope Pius, it was announced today, has appointed Edward J. Meaney, general commissioner of the Knights of Columbus, a private chamberlain.

Loses $5,500 Gems

MAJ. J. J. JONES

The full bench of the Supreme Court has ordered Fay St. Clair Jones, wife of Allen C. Jones, the former proprietor of the American House, to turn over to Malcolm M. McLaughlin, trustee in bankruptcy of Jones, a diamond ring worth $2,000 and a sapphire pendant valued at $3,000, which articles of jewelry the court says that Jones gave his wife in fraud of creditors.

POINT TO STAY

Continued from First Page.

ments on the part practices of the Federal police board.

This body has adhered, without a single exception, to a rule never to consider applications for parole from prisoners who have not been indicted pending against them."

BREAD STRIKE IN PARIS AFFECTS 5,000,000

Paris, Dec. 2.—The Associated Press—The majority of the bakers' shops in Paris and suburbs closed today in compliance with the decision of the master bakers to cease the production of bread as a protest against the official refusal to increase the price two cents per kilo to one franc fifteen centimes.

The government immediately took up the challenge and ordered a judicial inquiry.

One reason for the master bakers' strike is their desire to force the government to do away with the law enacted during the French Revolution, in July, 1793, under which the price of bread irrespective of the price of wheat is fixed.

More than five million persons are affected by the closing of some 3,500 shops, 2,500 of which are in Paris and the remainder in the departments of the Seine and the Seine-et-Oise.

The scramble for bread began early when the newspapers printed last night's decision of the bakers' union. Throughout the fashionable and other quarters men and women could be seen on their way home with supplies of bread tucked under their arms. The majority of the shops were stripped by 11 o'clock.

LAD WINS STRUGGLE WITH ENRAGED BULL

Worcester, Dec. 2.—George Turk, eighteen years old, was attacked by a bull on his farm in New Milford and saved himself from being killed by the animal's horns.

The bull was unable to break his hold, and could not harm him before the angry animal was killed by a farmer on one leg before he got his life-saving grip.

SO. BOSTON TENANT THINKS FIRE SET

The police department is investigating the origin of a fire which caused several hundred dollars' damage to the home and outbuildings of Anthony Mickewitz of No. 213 West 10th street.

Police say the fire was set. He considers the first floor of the three-story building. The house was owned by Thomas Brudon of No. 213 West 10th street.

ISAC AND ABRAHAM IN ROW OVER COAL

Isaac Gilman, Chelsea coal dealer, was lugging 100-pound sacks into the cellar of Abraham Haskinberger, who lives at No. 233 Walnut street, Chelsea. Isaac had put four bags inside when Abraham accused him of being short. Lengthy argument followed and finally, says Isaac, Abraham attacked him. Isaac was injured and taken to the hospital. Instead of 1,000 pounds Isaac had cheated himself by putting in 1,177 pounds. To get even Isaac had Abraham arrested. The assault was made on file in the Chelsea district court today.

THROUGH SLEEPING CAR DAILY

Boston to St. Petersburg, Fla. Jacksonville, Tampa and Clearwater

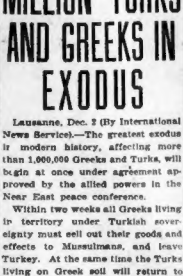

Leave Boston 9:00 A. M. Arrive Jacksonville 9:35 P. M. Arrive St. Petersburg 7:15 A. M.

Only One Night on the Sleeper to Florida First Car from Boston Jan. 1, 1923

SEABOARD AIR LINE RAILWAY

635 OLD SOUTH BLDG. BOSTON, MASS. Phone: Congress 3283.

TURKS AND GREEKS IN EXODUS

Lausanne, Dec. 2.—(By International News Service)—The greatest exodus in modern history, affecting more than 1,000,000 Greeks and Turks, will begin at once under agreement approved by the allied powers in the Near East peace conference.

Within two weeks all Greeks living in territory under Turkish sovereignty must sell out their goods and effects to Musulmans, and leave Turkey. At the same time the Turks living on Greek soil will return to Turkish soil.

It was explained today the allied delegates had consented to this arrangement because they feared if Christians remained under Turkish rule they might be massacred after the peace treaty is signed.

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, chairman of the International Committee on Russian Famines Relief, who had been instructed to make recommendations as to the best method of safeguarding the minority (Christian) population by Turkey and Greece said this was the best way to solve the difficulty although it would work great hardship upon the people of both countries, he added, were better than death.

Indications were today that the conference would be unable to bring about permanent peace in the Near East. Lord Curzon, head of the British delegation, is attempting to wind up the conference as quickly as possible. The British are under rupture between the two bled: Allied and Russo-Turks.

RESCUER CUTS WAY OUT OF BLAZING AUTO

Pinned in the front seat of a burning automobile after an accident on Western avenue, Lynn, Miss Marion P. Foster, sole delinquent and heiress, was saved by the prompt action of her escort, Richard Kingsbury, an artist of Walnut street.

Kingsbury was driving Miss Foster from her home, No. 123 Lake street, Salem, to Boston, when the auto was struck by a car piloted by Hubert Russell of Lynn. The Foster machine turned over and caught fire.

Miss Foster's arm was pinned beneath the car. Kingsbury was wedged between the wheel and seat. The side curtains were down and the flames burned rapidly, threatening to burn the two before aid could reach them.

Kingsbury managed to get his hand into his pocket and draw out a penknife. Opening it hurriedly he slashed at the side curtains, which were directly over him, until he had cut a saving hole.

Then, heaving his feet on the ground, he gave a wrench at the car that enabled Miss Foster to free her arm.

The couple escaped from the burning machine just in time.

DIVORCED WIFE BRINGS LOVE SUIT

New York, Dec. 2.—Asserting that he re-wedded and won her and now refuses to marry her, Mrs. Mary Carr has brought a breach of promise suit against her former husband, Alexander Carr, an actor playing at the Belvyn Theatre in "Partners Again." Carr denied the charge and is prepared to fight the suit.

ISAC AND ABRAHAM IN ROW OVER COAL

Isaac Gilman, Chelsea coal dealer, was lugging 100-pound sacks into the cellar of Abraham Haskinberger, who lives at No. 233 Walnut street, Chelsea. Isaac had put four bags inside when Abraham accused him of being short. Lengthy argument followed and finally, says Isaac, Abraham attacked him. Isaac was injured and taken to the hospital. Instead of 1,000 pounds Isaac had cheated himself by putting in 1,177 pounds. To get even Isaac had Abraham arrested. The assault was made on file in the Chelsea district court today.

WELLES CLUB HEARS EDITH MAY

Edith May, a student of the Welles Club, was today the guest of honor at a meeting of the club. She is a native of the city and has been a member of the club for several years. She is a student of the Welles Club and has been a member of the club for several years.

Saved by Escort

MISS MARION P. FOSTER.

Miss sole delinquent and heiress, was saved by the prompt action of her escort, Richard Kingsbury, an artist of Walnut street.

IRISH ENVOYS SPEAK HERE TOMORROW

Everything is in readiness for the reception of the Irish envoys here today.

A public reception, an automobile parade and the delivery of the fourth of his address were the main events scheduled for the Irish envoys before his departure for Baltimore tonight.

Elaborate police precautions were taken, and approximately a thousand officers and policemen being detailed to guard the route of the parade. A score of police, deputy sheriffs and detectives kept vigil at the home of Joseph Pulitzer, where Clemens was staying.

After meeting the local reception committee the Irish started on the parade, passing many of the school children after driving through Park street. He was greeted and given bouquets of flowers by the school boys at Washington and St. Louis University.

RESCUER CUTS WAY OUT OF BLAZING AUTO

Pinned in the front seat of a burning automobile after an accident on Western avenue, Lynn, Miss Marion P. Foster, sole delinquent and heiress, was saved by the prompt action of her escort, Richard Kingsbury, an artist of Walnut street.

Kingsbury was driving Miss Foster from her home, No. 123 Lake street, Salem, to Boston, when the auto was struck by a car piloted by Hubert Russell of Lynn. The Foster machine turned over and caught fire.

Miss Foster's arm was pinned beneath the car. Kingsbury was wedged between the wheel and seat. The side curtains were down and the flames burned rapidly, threatening to burn the two before aid could reach them.

Kingsbury managed to get his hand into his pocket and draw out a penknife. Opening it hurriedly he slashed at the side curtains, which were directly over him, until he had cut a saving hole.

Then, heaving his feet on the ground, he gave a wrench at the car that enabled Miss Foster to free her arm.

The couple escaped from the burning machine just in time.

INDIAN EDUCATOR BRINGS OWN CHEF

Dr. B. V. K. Rao, a prominent educator in his native country, who is in Boston to attend the annual meeting of the Indian Education Association, has brought with him his own personal chef, who is a native of India.

EDWARDS' DRIVER WILL STUDY LAW

Hegmont, N. Y., Dec. 2.—O'Connor, chauffeur for Major General C. H. Edwards, told the army today after 20 years' service. He will begin to study the law. O'Connor was a trooper boy and holds membership in the St. Alban's Association, Bedford Association and Parker Hill Club or Club.

THE DOCTOR'S FIRST QUESTION

"Are you constipated?" He asks this first, because if you are, it is the first thing to be remedied.

EX-LAX

The Sweet Chocolate Laxative contains ingredients used and recommended by leading physicians throughout the world for the relief of constipation.

Being a delicious confection as well as a laxative, all children love it.

Ex-Lax is the safe and efficient laxative for all the family.

10c, 25c and 50c. Druggists everywhere

Boston Consolidated Gas Co.

THRILLS AND LAUGHS IN THE NEW SHOWS

There is a good deal of the drama of London in the new offerings at the theatres next week, with child and sociology doing their best to hold the field against spirited musical comedy of distinctly native character. The British equivalent to "The Bull Dog Drummond," in the form of "The Dover Road," will move into the Halls on Monday, with H. B. Warner starring in crime and dramatic sensation. Mr. Warner has been getting away with it successfully in New York, Chicago and minor points for more than a year. Charles Cherry will be seen Monday at the Plymouth in the much more controversial English play, "The Dover Road," a comedy by A. A. Milne that has been doing very well in this country, with nearly a year to its credit on Broadway. If you prefer broad comedy, with nimble footed girls and lots of fun, Frank Tinney will show something new at the Shubert with "Duffy Dill." Tinney will do most of the work, while a Humberston chorus looks in prettiest and cavors merrily to entraining tunes.

Family Tradition Keeps Her on Stage

Bess Lachays, with "Captain Jack," at the Tremont Theatre, after graduating from college made her debut under the most auspicious circumstances, owing to the assistance of her brothers, and secured an instantaneous success in "Ninety and Nine" at the Academy of Music. Lachays, 26, New York born, Lachays City, since then her career has been brilliant and has only upon her own merits as an actress. Her first important engagement was as the ingenue with the Lachays all-star cast with supported that distinguished name in a repertoire of plays. She followed a number of seasons in support of well known stars, such as Nat Goodwin, Raymond Blount, Guy Bates Post, Dustin Farnum and Henry B. Dwyer. She was the first of the Lachays to be married to a theatrical man, her husband being Walter Lachays, famous throughout the country.

He's Extinct Now—The Matinee Idol

There are no matinee idols any more. So spoke Charles Cherry out of the fullness of his experience, having seen leading man for years in the beautiful woman stars and matinee idols in his own right. Now he is starting in "The Dover Road," coming Monday night to the Plymouth Theatre.

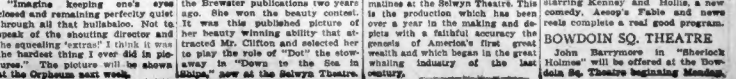

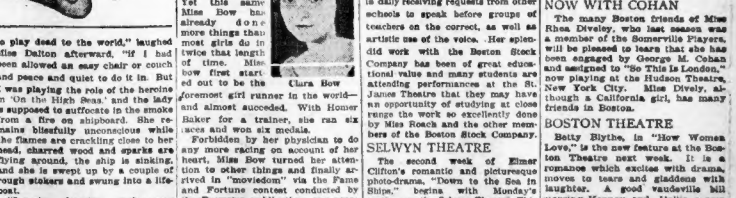

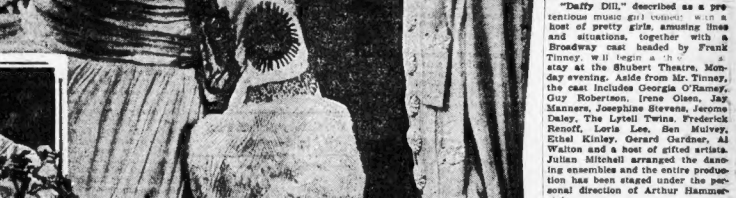

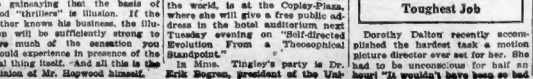

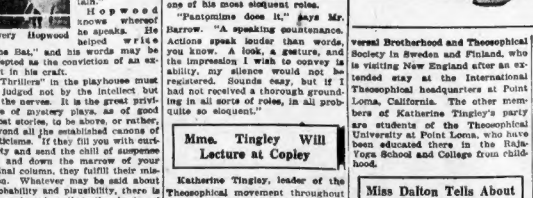

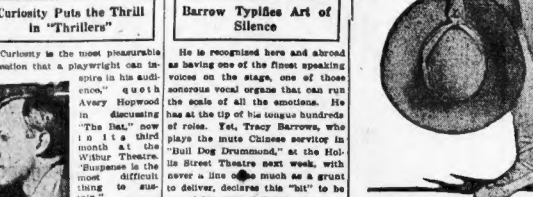

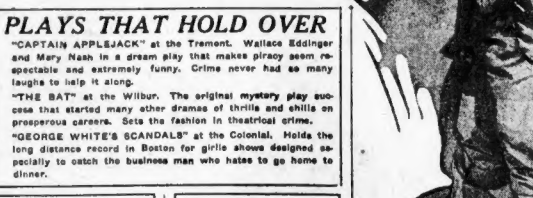

You are a matinee idol yourself," recently ventured an interviewer. "I was once," said Cherry, "but I have a thing to say. The matinee idol has gone, never to return. Tomorrow should write an article for him." "Who killed Cock Robin?" you ask. "I," said the motion picture man, "with my close-up pictures, my hairbreadth escapes and my deeds. During the girls now write to their favorite film actor for autographs and photographs. The screen here can be seen by hundreds of thousands where the stage here is comparatively limited. The screen here's popularity with girls and young women has caused the disappearance of a historical character in stage history, the matinee idol. Who will be his replacement?"

"Don't Let Up on the Girls," Says Mac Dix

"I thoroughly approve women who pointed the finger at men who break the law. I believe with that judge in the Salem case that women now have a right to equal rights with men they must take equal penalties," wrote Mac Dix, who is featured in "Brooklyn Flowers," which comes to the Point Theatre Monday night. In this connection he also cited the case of George H. Brown, who was sentenced to two months in the House of Correction for setting Burt. "I don't intend to break any laws," says Dix, "but if I do I will take my punishment like a man. I believe, however, that women have a right to be treated as men. That is generally conceded if the women claim it, too. Well, it being so, they should be more active about obeying the law."

ESSIE JAMES MEITZ

SPIRITED ATTRACTIONS AT THE LOCAL PLAYHOUSES

Gentry, nefarious, villains first-leared, heroine trusting and a hero handsome, intrepid, cool and calm in the face of death and cunning to the point of law, order and righteousness—these are the ingredients of Charles Dillingham's production of the English melodrama, "Bull Dog Drummond," which, with H. B. Warner in the stellar role, will be the attraction at the Halls Theatre for a limited engagement, beginning Monday night.

"The Dover Road" is heralded as a melodrama cleverly polished between realism and burlesque, running a chromatic scale of terrors and titillation—an entertainment founded on a look of adventure by an English author, who prefers to be known simply as "Dapper."

firm English play ever to have been presented first in America. Next week at Keith's will be Elsie Janis week, headlining the famous international star herself, in a revival of typical Janis hits. Another star, closely rivaling the charming Elsie in personality is "The Sales," a real character-drama, and one of the leading boulevard of the stage and screen. Wells, Virginia and West, their dance exhibition; Miss Leland, dancing feminine acrobat; Raymond Bond; Walton and Brant Al Mason; the ball player and Jimmy Rube, the song writer; Barnard and Sons, and Ford and Price complete a bill worthy of its star feature.

PLYMOUTH THEATRE
Monday night at the Plymouth Theatre Guthrie McClintic will present "The Dover Road," a new comedy by A. A. Milne, author of "Pinocchio," "The Romantic Comedians," "The Lucky One" and other plays, with Charles Cherry at the head of the original New York company, which includes Melville Pearson, Kathleen Conneally, Raymond Mason, Lynd Watts and George Hiddle.

"The Dover Road" runs for its month at the Bijou Theatre last season, establishing a record for longest run of any English play ever given in New York. It is also in

MAJESTIC THEATRE
In all vaudeville there are no more amusing fun pictures than those shown at the Majestic Theatre. The new show, which will be the coming week at the Majestic, is a feature of the Shubert vaudeville revue, "Say It With Laughter." These fun makers have a big following from one end of the country to the other, and their advent in vaudeville a few years ago was hailed with delight by everyone.

Roger Imhof is assisted throughout the entire part of the program by Shubert's leading vaudeville headliners, the Barry Twins, Bobby Barry, comedian; Haystack Brown, White and Beck, Daisy Harris and a chorus of 10 regular dancing beauties.

ST. JAMES THEATRE
At the St. James Theatre next week the Boston Stock Company will be presented in "Duffy Dill," the pen of Mark Connelly and George S. Kaufman.

Duffy could never distinguish between a surprise and a shock, according to her brother, George. Certainly, Duffy's husband comes in for a good many shocks during that week-end to which he is invited by the jewelry king, C. Rogers Forbes, with the idea of making a fortune in the merger. Duffy, with every intention of making the party a success, had invited, unknown to her husband, a variety of unattractive guests.

SHUBERT THEATRE
"Duffy Dill," described as a pretentious musty girl, is a host of pretty girls, assuming the role of a hostess, together with a Broadway cast headed by Frank Tinney, who will begin a stay at the Shubert Theatre, Monday evening. Aside from Mr. Tinney, the cast includes George O'Rourke, Guy Robertson, Irene Olsen, Jay Manners, Josephine Stevens, Jerome Daley, The Loyal Twins, Frederick Renoff, Loris Lee, Ben Mulvey, Ethel Kinley, Gerard Gardner, Al Walton and a host of other stars. Julian Mitchell arranged the dancing ensembles and the entire production has been staged under the personal direction of Arthur Hammerstein.

LOEW'S STATE
Two feature photoplays will be shown at Loew's State Theatre next week. The first of these is "The Impossible Mrs. Baines," with Gloria Swanson in the featured role. There are many features attached to this production, which will delight every woman patron, chief among these being a more than a score of rare live animals, which are worn by Miss Swanson in her impersonation of a woman of the world. The second feature, "The Forgotten Law," with Milton Sills as the star, is a powerful drama based on a novel of widespread appeal.

SOMERVILLE PLAYERS
The Somerville Players have designated the coming week as "hilarity week" in the announcement that they will offer the best fare of the current season, "The Ruined Lady." The Ruined Lady is of the modern type and a story of compelling interest and charm. The various principal characters will afford Mr. McCardie's group of players opportunity for the display of their talents. Ann Hildreth has been assigned to the leading role, while Harry Bond will play the principal male part.

NOW WITH COHAN
The many Boston friends of Miss Ruth Dreyer, who last season was a member of the Somerville Players, will be pleased to learn that she has been engaged by George H. Cohan and assigned to "So This is London," now playing at the Hudson Theatre, New York City. Miss Dreyer, although a California girl, has many friends in Boston.

BOSTON THEATRE
Betsy Blythe, in "How Women Love," is the new feature at the Boston Theatre next week. It is a romance which deals with young women to learn and gladden with laughter. A good vaudeville bill is also featured, including a new comedy, Acrop's Fable and new opera, "The Girl of the Year."

BOWDOIN SQ. THEATRE
John Barrymore in "Sherlock Holmes" will be offered at the Bowdoin Sq. Theatre beginning Monday.

PLAYS THAT HOLD OVER

"CAPTAIN APPLEJACK" at the Tremont. Wallace Edginger and Mary Nash in a drama play that makes piracy seem respectable and extremely funny. Crime never had so many laughs to help it along.

"THE BAY" at the Wilbur. The original mystery play success that started many other dramas of thrills and chills on prosperous careers. Sets the fashion in theatrical crime.

"GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS" at the Colonial. Holds the long distance record in Boston for girls alone designed especially to catch the business man who hates to go home to dinner.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"DUFFY DILL" at the Shubert. Frank Tinney in the lead.

"THE BULL DOG DRUMMOND" at the Halls. H. B. Warner in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

CLAYS THAT HOLD OVER

"CAPTAIN APPLEJACK" at the Tremont. Wallace Edginger and Mary Nash in a drama play that makes piracy seem respectable and extremely funny. Crime never had so many laughs to help it along.

"THE BAY" at the Wilbur. The original mystery play success that started many other dramas of thrills and chills on prosperous careers. Sets the fashion in theatrical crime.

"GEORGE WHITE'S SCANDALS" at the Colonial. Holds the long distance record in Boston for girls alone designed especially to catch the business man who hates to go home to dinner.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"DUFFY DILL" at the Shubert. Frank Tinney in the lead.

"THE BULL DOG DRUMMOND" at the Halls. H. B. Warner in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

"THE DOVER ROAD" at the Plymouth. Charles Cherry in the lead.

WON BEAUTY CONTEST; Stepped Into Movies

Clara Bow is not quite seventeen years of age. This doesn't mean that she is not a picture actress. Clara Bow is already 40 years old in the eyes of the public. She has already appeared in the family Bible on the centre table. Yet this same Clara Bow has already appeared in the family Bible on the centre table. Yet this same Clara Bow has already appeared in the family Bible on the centre table.

Miss Roach Invited to Address Pupils

Viola Roach of the Boston Stock Company at the St. James Theatre has won an enviable reputation for her beautiful speaking voice and remarkably clear diction. She has already addressed the pupils in a number of schools in Greater Boston during the past few weeks and is daily receiving requests from other schools to speak before groups of teachers on the correct, as well as artistic use of the voice. Her splendid work with the Boston Stock Company has been of great educational value and many students are attending performances at the St. James Theatre that they may have an opportunity of studying at close range the work so excellently done by Miss Roach and the other members of the Boston Stock Company.

Miss Dalton Tells About Toughest Job

Dorothy Dalton recently accomplished the hardest task a motion picture director ever set for her. She had to be unconscious for half an hour. "It wouldn't have been so bad if I had been allowed an easy chair or couch and peace and quiet to do it in. But I was playing the role of the heroine in 'On the High Seas' and the lady is supposed to suffocate in the smoke from a fire on shipboard. She remains blissfully unconscious while the flames are crackling close to her head, charred wood and sparks are flying around, the ship is sinking, and she is swept up by a couple of rough sailors and swung into a life boat.

Barrow Typifies Art of Silence

He is recognized here and abroad as having one of the finest speaking voices on the stage, one of those sonorous vocal organs that can run the gamut of all the emotions. He has at the tip of his tongue hundreds of roles. Yet, Tracy Barrow, who plays the mute Chinese servant in "Bull Dog Drummond," at the Halls Street Theatre next week, with never a line of dialogue as a grunt to deliver, declares that "that" is one of his most eloquent roles.

Curiosity Puts the Thrill in "Thrillers"

"Curiosity is the most pleasurable sensation that a playwright can inspire in his craft," wrote Avery Hopwood in discussing "The Bull Dog Drummond," which is the most difficult thing to write. "If you would know whereof he speaks," write "The Bull Dog Drummond," which is the most difficult thing to write. "If you would know whereof he speaks," write "The Bull Dog Drummond," which is the most difficult thing to write.

Mme. Tingling Will Lecture at Copley

Katherine Tingling, leader of the Theosophical movement throughout the world, is at the Copley-Plaza, where she will give a free public address in the hotel auditorium next Tuesday evening on "Buddhist Evolution from a Theosophical Standpoint."

Miss Dalton Tells About Toughest Job

Dorothy Dalton recently accomplished the hardest task a motion picture director ever set for her. She had to be unconscious for half an hour. "It wouldn't have been so bad if I had been allowed an easy chair or couch and peace and quiet to do it in. But I was playing the role of the heroine in 'On the High Seas' and the lady is supposed to suffocate in the smoke from a fire on shipboard. She remains blissfully unconscious while the flames are crackling close to her head, charred wood and sparks are flying around, the ship is sinking, and she is swept up by a couple of rough sailors and swung into a life boat.

Won Beauty Contest; Stepped Into Movies

Clara Bow is not quite seventeen years of age. This doesn't mean that she is not a picture actress. Clara Bow is already 40 years old in the eyes of the public. She has already appeared in the family Bible on the centre table. Yet this same Clara Bow has already appeared in the family Bible on the centre table.

Miss Roach Invited to Address Pupils

Viola Roach of the Boston Stock Company at the St. James Theatre has won an enviable reputation for her beautiful speaking voice and remarkably clear diction. She has already addressed the pupils in a number of schools in Greater Boston during the past few weeks and is daily receiving requests from other schools to speak before groups of teachers on the correct, as well as artistic use of the voice. Her splendid work with the Boston Stock Company has been of great educational value and many students are attending performances at the St. James Theatre that they may have an opportunity of studying at close range the work so excellently done by Miss Roach and the other members of the Boston Stock Company.

OPERA FROM RUSSIA HERE

Wandering Singers to Present Russian Art at Opera House Next Week

The Russian Grand Opera Company, which is to be heard in a series of performances at the Boston Opera House, commencing next Monday, has come through the experience within the last six years that are strikingly like a work of fiction.

These artists speak no English, they know nothing of the language or customs of the West. But they have rubbed elbows with tragedy and starvation, have seen their homes destroyed and their families drop from sight in that political maelstrom which is Russia. And they have striven to make their fortune anew with optimism and drive the lie to the old theory that Russia is the home of the most optimistic of races.

The repertoire for the first week is as follows: Monday evening, "Boris Godunov"; Tuesday evening, "The Tsar's Daughter"; Wednesday evening, "The Tsar's Daughter"; Thursday evening, "The Tsar's Daughter"; Friday evening, "The Tsar's Daughter"; Saturday evening, "The Tsar's Daughter"; Sunday evening, "The Tsar's Daughter".

HANDEL AND HAYDN

The Handel and Haydn Society, the oldest in the country, will present three notable oratorios at Symphony Hall in the course of the coming season, under Emil Mollenauer, with a large orchestra and distinguished soloists assisting at each concert.

HEMPEL TOMORROW

In her famous Jenny Lind concert, which was so highly successful in New York at the centennial celebration of the famous Swedish singing girl of olden times, Frieda Hempel will appear in Symphony Hall next Friday afternoon at 2:30. She is to wear a replica of Jenny Lind's costume.

FRANK PROGRAM

Great Frank will be the composer of honor at the next pair of regular Boston Symphony concerts to be given in Symphony Hall next Friday afternoon and Saturday evening. Pierre Monteux will place the great symphony of the Belgian composer at the head of the program, and also include two of his symphonies, "The Acropolis" and "The Wild Huntsman".

A MONDAY SYMPHONY

The program for the first of the five extra Monday evening concerts by the Boston Symphony Orchestra is now announced. The soloist will be Ernest Schelling, who is famous both as virtuoso and composer. He will play Liszt's piano concerto in E flat. Pierre Monteux will also present Brahms' First Symphony in C minor, Rabelais' "La Procession Nocturne" and Chabrier's "Rhapsody Espana".

GERICKE BENEFIT

The Boston Symphony Orchestra is to give a benefit at the concert in Symphony Hall next Tuesday evening for the benefit of Wilhelmina Gericke, a former conductor, who is now in want in Austria. Two symphonies will be played: "The Unfinished" of Schubert and "Beethoven's Fifth Symphony of Beethoven in C minor."

BETHMAN IN KHARTOUM

Khartoum is the subject of the third lecture in the series of Newmarket Travel Talks "Cape to Cairo," which will be given in Symphony Hall next Friday evening and Saturday afternoon. The expedition was led by the late Sir Evelyn Baring, who was formerly British Consul-General in Egypt.

Illustration of a man in a top hat, likely related to the opera or theatrical news.

NEW CAPITAL WILL OPEN MONDAY

The opening of Gordon's Capital Theatre on Commonwealth avenue, near Harvard avenue, the newest and greatest link in the mighty chain of Olympia Theatres, Inc., will take place Monday evening.

Guy Bates Post in "Omar, the Tentmaker," a fascinating Oriental story of the universality of love, will be the feature screen production for the premiere. Latest news, comedy and educational films will round out the moving picture portion of the program. A Symphony Orchestra of twenty pieces will play.

On account of the widespread interest in the premiere of the Capital Theatre and advance reports of its unusual beauty and comfort of its new home of playhouse and music, tickets for the opening night.

State and city officials have accepted invitations to attend the first night. Residents of Brookline, including the Park Bay and Newton will be particularly well represented, judging by advance applications.

The management has arranged to take care of patrons arriving by automobile as conveniently as possible. A large parking space, free to patrons of the Capital, adjoins the theatre structure. Attendees will find numerous taxicabs waiting and will guard the cars during performance.

Following the opening night at the Capital, two shows will be given daily. Seats are reserved for evening performances only. On Sunday concerts will be given, consisting of high-grade vaudeville, photoplays and music.

MODERN AND BEACON THEATRES

The new Capital Theatre, of Washington Irving's immortal classic, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," will live again through the impersonation of him by Will Rogers in a photoplay entitled, "The Headless Horseman," beginning Monday at the Modern Theatre.

The legend immortalizing Ichabod Crane, the Connecticut schoolmaster, has long held prominence in the popular imagination. With the naturally dramatic personality of Will Rogers the picture Ichabod Crane's return to the stage and the story in photoplay advanced in great measure. The scenes were taken where possible in the original localities.

STANDARD AND CENTRAL

Grand in the cast of "The Young Rajah," the picture attraction at Gordon's Standard and Central Square Theatres, beginning Monday. Not only the size but the quality of the picture is a masterpiece. It has achieved lately one of the most sensational star successes since movies were known, but the other parts are interpreted by stars and near-stars.

WILL ROGERS TAKES DEAD AUTHORS

Will Rogers, who is being starred in "The Headless Horseman," a photoplay version of "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," which will be the attraction at the Modern and Beacon Theatres next week, has decided that he would rather depict characters in pictures from the works of departed authors than live one.

"I have never yet been given a word of praise," drawled Will recently, "from a living author, whose work I know well. I haven't even heard his name since I did one of his pictures. Hereafter, I intend to appear only in the works of dead authors."

"Just to show you how things work," continued the intimate Will, "here I am playing the role of Ichabod Crane for Washington Irving, who has passed on, and am gratulating myself that he could never shoot me or anything for my domination of his favorite character, when along comes Mr. Tocher, a historian, and tells me that the descendant of the original Ichabod are alive today. I suppose I will be killed by some Crane person under his real cognomen and sooner or later become croak-kill."

Mr. Crosby's Sixth Play in Somerville

Edward Harold Crosby, dramatic editor of the Boston Post, has written a new play entitled "Behind the Screen," which will have its first presentation on any stage at the Somerville Theatre on Monday, December 15. "Behind the Screen" is a melodramatic comedy of love and action, and tells an up-to-date story that contains elements of popular appeal. This is the sixth play written by Mr. Crosby to find production at the hands of Mr. McArthur's organization. "Behind the Screen" will also be a brand new production. The piece will be staged under the direction of James H. Davis.

GAYETY THEATRE

"Broadway Poppers," with Mae Pils, the nightclub singer who scored such a big individual hit when she was at the Gayety Theatre last Summer with "Follies of the Day" will be at the Gayety Theatre last Summer.

This production carries ten principals, a chorus of twenty and a number of specialists. The show consists of two musical burlesques, with a number of vaudeville acts in addition. The opening burlesque is "The Poppers' Review" and the afterpiece is entitled "Final Hoppers on Trial."

WALDRON'S CASINO

"Talk of the Town," a burlesque revue well supplied with comedy specialties, chorus number, vaudeville specialties and lighting novelties, will be seen at Waldron's Casino next week. Feature reviewing pictures and additional vaudeville specialties will complete the three-night continuous program.

GORDON'S OLYMPIA

Guy Bates Post will be seen at Gordon's Olympia Theatre Monday, representing a full twenty years of thought and labor by his authorship. Richard Walter Tully, the latest news, comic and pictorial review, together with five all-star vaudeville acts, complete the program.

Illustration of a man in a top hat, likely related to the opera or theatrical news.

Curious Coincidence: Ask the Barr Twins

By a mysterious turn of fate, one of the Barr Twins happened to be born on the 27th birthday. The coincidence is of a world. The twins are both named Barr. The one who is named Barr is the one who is named Barr. The one who is named Barr is the one who is named Barr.

BUSTER WEST GIVES NEW VIEW

One of the most tragic cases of a good word gone wrong, an innocent victim of circumstances, in "step-mother." Not so very many years ago, they were comrades without a wicked stepmother to crash into the plot and almost-but never quite-within the romance of the hero and the heroine. A splendid antidote for all this in the story of Guy West of West, Virginia, and Wells, and his little step-mother, who is the heroine of the act which comes to Keith's Theatre next week.

Minstrel Show Will Remain Next Week

Harvey's "Greater Minstrel" will continue for another week at the Arlington Theatre, beginning Monday night. This will be the final week of the local engagement. This celebrated organization of entertainers has found local theatre-goers receptive to its efforts. Not only does the company hold its own as a slugging aggregation but it is well supplied with comedians and dancers of ability. Minnie Watts, billed as a Creole dancer, has been favorably received. The company carries its own band and concert will be given daily in the South End.

"OLIVER TWIST"

Among the great works of English literature there is one book, by Charles Dickens, in which one character dominates the story. The character is "Oliver Twist." Of great interest to everyone is the fact that the character of Oliver Twist is the character of a boy who is born in a workhouse and is taken to a home where he is raised as a gentleman. The character of Oliver Twist is the character of a boy who is born in a workhouse and is taken to a home where he is raised as a gentleman.

TREMONT TEMPLE

Last Mat. Today at 2:15. Last Night 8:15. LOVE MYSTERY COMEDY THRILLS Griffith's Masterpiece ONE EXCITING NIGHT

'OLIVER TWIST' 'KNIGHTHOOD' AT TREMONT TEMPLE

Jackie Coogan the Featured Player in This Photoplay of Dickens' Story

To all who are familiar with Dickens' humor, his characters and literary style, there is a great treat in store. Little Jackie Coogan, supported by a group of carefully selected actors, will be seen Monday at Tremont Temple in a photoplay of Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist." And to all who know little or nothing of Charles Dickens, there is coming—Jackie Coogan.

It is asserted that never before in the history of motion pictures has there been a more successful effort to bring to the world of motion picture patron a masterpiece of such vital appealing literature. Included among the principals are Len Chaney, who brings his extraordinary art to the role of "Fagin," the merry old gentleman; Gladys Brockwell, whose fine acting art and keen sympathies render her ideal for the pious role of Nancy Sikes; Lionel Barrymore, whose performance of the role of Mr. Brownlow is said to be masterly; James Marcus, who plays the pompous and hypocritical Mr. Bumble; Beulah of the Workhouse; George Heaman as Bill Sikes; and a host of others celebrated in the world of acting.

Gloria Swanson in New Bathing Raiment

Beach scenes at Deauville, France, home of the one-piece bathing suit, the liveliest Summer resort in the world, is the locale for important and colorful sequences of "The Impossible Mrs. Butler," Gloria Swanson's new picture at Legue's State Theatre next week.

SCOLLAY ST. OLYMPIA

Gloria Swanson's story "Pink God" will be shown at Gordon's Scollay St. Olympia beginning Monday. The featured players are Hebe Daniels and James Kirkwood.

SUNDAY SHOWING

Having passed the State authority without a single objection for Sunday screening, the picture "Down to the Sea in Ships" will be given its first Sunday screening tomorrow night at the Bay View Theatre.

'KNIGHTHOOD' SMASHING RECORDS

Marion Davies Gains High Honors in This Brilliant and Spectacular Picture

The concluding weeks are announced of the engagement of Marion Davies in "When Knighthood Was in Flower," at the Park Theatre. The engagement has proved one of the most popular and profitable in the history of the theatre, and it is general opinion that she has more deserved high favor. The picture has been given the public, and with the assembling of a cast of such sterling excellence, the picture making art.

The very thoroughness and experience which marked the work of the producer, who is the fruit of many expert minds in the concrete reality, sets a standard that is sure to have influence upon future production. Nothing more beautiful pictorially has been given the public, and with the assembling of a cast of such sterling excellence, the picture making art.

GLOBE THEATRE

"The Princess of Zenda" will be the principal feature of the program to be offered at the Globe Theatre next week. This picture unfolds a story teeming with dramatic action, full of intricate romance and excitement. It concerns the adventure of an English gentleman who, because of a remarkable likeness to the ruler of the mythical kingdom of Ruritania, becomes for a time an actual ruler and wins the love of the Princess Zenda. It is a dramatization of the famous novel by Anthony Hope.

Francis Trevelyan Miller, L.L.D., L.H.D., famous Historian and author of more than forty historical volumes, writes—

Gibbons in his "Roman Empire," or Macaulay in his "History of England" do not so vividly preserve historical events for the generations to come as does Marion Davies in her epoch-making production, "When Knighthood Was in Flower."

Its historical accuracy, beauty of settings, excellence of acting, lavishness of costume and scenic effects, harmonious and perfectly synchronized musical score, make

"Knighthood" The Wonder Picture

Now at the

PARK THEATRE

WASHINGTON STREET

DAILY AT 2:15 and 8:15

MAT. SUNDAY at 3

Prices: Matinee 50c to $1.00

Evenings 75c to $1.50

A Cosmopolitan Production

Directed by ROBERT G. VIGNOLA

Settings by JOSEPH URBAN

Scenarist by LUTHER REED

A Paramount Picture

THE LIGHTHOUSE

JOHN H. MASON

TWO COMPLETE NEWS SECTIONS, TWO FIRST PAGES, TWO FICTION PAGES, 16 AND 17, TWO PAGES OF COMICS, 14 AND 15

GRON DIVORCE HEARING TO BARE SOCIETY SECRETS

Mrs. Caswell Glad Her Daughter Is Free

SHE DON'T LOVE MR. MORGAN

IN SHATTERED ROMANCE

Photo of Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Elizabeth Rollins Caswell, whose engagement with young Jasper Morgan is broken, in a dancing act at the fashionable Vincent Club show

Wife Was Buried Alive

Wife Was Buried Alive

Wife Was Buried Alive

Wife Was Buried Alive

Wife Was Buried Alive

Wife Was Buried Alive

Wife Was Buried Alive

YES - HIS WIFE LETS HIM EAT ONLY THE THINGS WHICH AGREE WITH HER

HAVERHILL IN POST-SEASON CONTEST

JOE STEDMAN
QUARTER
BACK -
Brighton

MICHAEL J. DURAND -
TAIL -
Enq 17

NARET MARTIN
CENTER
Kew-Forest

WALTER REID
LEFT END
Nanton

LAWRENCE
LOWERY -
FULL BACK
Nanton

CROBERT
TOMLINSON
LEFT TACKLE
Nanton

MISS GRAVES WILL MANAGE LEXINGTON

Miss Eleanor Graves has been elected manager of the girls' basketball team at the Lexington High School, and Miss Helen Ballard has been named assistant manager. Miss Sally Feldman is captain of the team, which has already started practice, in the Lexington Town Hall where the team will practice.

WILLIAM LEARY
FULL
BACK
Red/Pro

MARTIN MEETS THE HARVARD ATHLETES

Haverhill, Dec. 9.—The Haverhill High School football eleven has just been crowned champion and will undoubtedly play a first season contest. The Brown and Gold team received its title challenge for a post season inter-sectional contest to be played here at its home on December 8. The team of twelve boys, coached by Haverhill four years ago, is the latest challenger. The Scott team won the championship of Ohio State last year when it defeated Waite High, 11 to 0.

The local management has not made any announcement in accepting any of the challenges, but from the fact that the team has given orders to remain in training, it is felt that a game will be played.

Haverhill has won forty consecutive victories without a defeat. The eleven's record has given credit to the College-High Cross game. Coach R. William Broderick was a graduate from Holy Cross.

MILLSTREAMS WILL PLAY REVERE ELKS
LINEUP AT EVERETT

MILLSTREAMS REVERE ELKS

Granstok, L.A.		r.f.	McDonough
Heardon, H.		c.	Chambers
Johnson, I.G.		r.g.	C. Clark
Hardy, C.		c.	T. Kelly
Harrington, R.G.		l.g.	G. Gumperson
Smith, R.A.		l.f.	E. Clark
Kellher, R.A.		r.f.	Edman

Elks

Simpson, J. B. J. B. Simpson
 Olney, r.h.b. J. B. Olney
 Scott, f.b. J. B. Scott

This afternoon on the Everett High School athletic field, one of the biggest semi-pro football games of the year will be played. The strong Chieftains will take on the Revere Lodge of Elks tackle the strong Chieftain Miltreasts R & A.

The Elks, of the beach city have lost only one game, that to the W. Alphonse A. C. of Astoria. They have a 2-0 on the beach city. The Chieftain outfit has won all their contests on the gridiron this season.

The team winning will be entitled to a title game with the Fern Beach outfit, who are a national power.

The game will be played at 2 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 11.

LYNCH TO BOX
JOE SANGER

New York, Dec. 3—Joe Lynch, world's heavyweight champion, has been matched with Joe Sanger for a round no-decision contest scheduled for Dec. 10 at the Regal in Milwaukee on December 7.

Joe continues to be one of the hottest challengers for the ring has known. He's always willing to

On December 4, Bingham will go to Europe on business and will spend some time in England arranging for a track meet between a Harvard-Yale team and an Oxford-Cambridge outfit, to be held in England this summer.

give any contender a shot at the crown

—The New to Christmas Santa Feed—

SHYNE AND CORBEY
IN WOBURN BOULDER

A good card has been arranged for the weekly boxing tournament at the Lyceum A. C., Woburn, for next Tuesday, with Billy Shyne, who grabbed a sensational win from Freddie Warren at the last show.

Woburn fans should be interested in Billy Henderson's statement, "The Corbey and Rhynne should be an even more exciting mill" than the one between Rhynne and Warren.

The feature attraction will be supported by three preliminaries. Young Nigral, Rivers, and Mike Madonna of Lexington, are booked for an eight-round semi-final; Jack Dillon, Woburn, is to oppose Young Echoes Malden, and Andy Walsh, Boston.

will tackle Billy Graydon, Boston, 5' 6", 160 lbs., a former NWA world champion. He's a real tough guy.

—Give Him to Christmas Babel Feed—

TUOEY PLANS MAT SHOW ON CHRISTMAS

Promoter George Tuohy is planning a New York, rounding up talent for his Christmas night carnival in Mechanics Building, an event that has become an annual fixture, not only for the wrestling fans, but for many others.

Tuohy plans to make the event a

"The Board Walk Exposition Mechanics Building commended me lay off Thanksgiving for the first time in seventeen years, but I hope to make up for this by the excellence of my Christmas night program," says Tuohy.

—Give Fur to Christmas Unmet Needs—

EDDIE STEIN IS

EDDIE SHEVLIN IS
WINNER OVER BLOOM
Providence, R. I., Dec. 2.—Eddie Shevlin defeated Phil Bloom of Brooklyn at Infantry Hall in rounds of fast and scientific boxing. Shevlin had a big lead in the first four rounds and in the next three Bloom took the lead. The last rounds found the Dartmouth professor scoring heavy with both hands to the body. Shevlin made great impression with his fast and accurate hitting. The referee and judges all voted for Shevlin.

AMATEURS CLASH AT DILBOY SHOW

Chairman Herb Cole of the Dilboy Post boxing committee premises the followers of the amateur mitt wield are one of the best cards ever offered around Greater Boston, when that organization stages its regular monthly open boxing tournament next Thursday evening, in K. of C.

EDDIE SHEVLIN IS WINNER OVER BLOOM
Providence, R. I., Dec. 2.—Eddie Shevlin defeated Phil Bloom of Brooklyn at Infantry Hall in rounds of fast and scientific boxing. Shevlin had a big lead in the first four rounds and in the next three Bloom took the lead. The last rounds found the Dartmouth professor scoring heavy with both hands to the body. Shevlin made great impression with his fast and accurate hitting. The referee and judges all voted for Shevlin.

The classes to be contested are 112, 126, 135 and 147 pounds. In addition to these and to satisfy the clamoring of the heavy boys, the heavyweight class will be added for the first time, and from the calibre of the entries being received it is expected that this class will prove popular with the fans. The show will have somewhat of an Inter-City tinge attached to it, in view of the fact that Young Zarko, 112-pound amateur champion of Manchester,

N. H., has indicated his intention to compete again as he has in the last two shows and in which he walked off with the honors over some of the best Greater Boston boys.

GE STATEISTICS
		Height.
Age.	Weight.	Feet.	Inches.
23	180	6	6
21	190	5	10

... 20	188	5	9
... 22	178	5	10
... 17	205	0
... 23	185	5	14
... 19	177	5	10
... 23	173	5	10
... 21	191	5	0
... 31	162	5	9
... 23	150	5	11
... 31	190	0	3
... 23	154	5	0
... 31	100	5	10

EDDIE SHEVLIN IS
WINNER OVER BLOOM
Providence, R. I., Dec. 2.—Eddie Shevlin defeated Phil Bloom of Brooklyn at Infantry Hall in rounds of fast and scientific boxing. Shevlin had a big lead in the first four rounds and in the next three Bloom took the lead. The last rounds found the Dartmouth professor scoring heavy with both hands to the body. Shevlin made great impression with his fast and accurate hitting. The referee and judges all voted for Shevlin.

ENJOY TWO PAGES OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST COMICS

Polly and Her Pals

by Cliff Sterrett

Inlines of History Have Reached Manhattan and Phila.

By Nat N. Dorfman
Writes So a Congressman Can Read and Understand After Translation From the Chinese of Hoos Hee Yell.

Sixth installment.
NOW that the people of Europe had learned that the ocean was free of flying storage boxes or other unaccountable monsters scientists usually pin impossible names on to the Atlantic was filled with more eager to grab a piece of American property before the real estate boom was slated to commence.

The Dutch, following the lead set by Hendrick Hudson, settled in Manhattan, a quaint and charming little island surrounded on all sides by profligate and oil stock elements. In those days, however, Manhattan was far removed from oleans, Hoboken and Brooklyn and its reputation, therefore, was not unsullied. The Dutch have

NEWLY WEDD WAILS

ANY married woman should be able to help write a popular song. All she has to do is simply her words and her husband will set the air easily enough outside.

Be it ever so humble, there is no lace like tachlor quarters.

The Spartans used to place a net on their captives' fingers to designate them as slaves. Today he order is changed somewhat. A girl has a man place a ring in her finger to show she has a man.

The fellow who wrote "Keep to Home First Burn" must have been a married man who said the job of starting the fun goes every morning.

Not all women complain incessantly to their husbands. Not all women have husbands to complain to, so they suffer in silence until they get one.

When a woman comes to that stage where she is considered in her as a beauty, she suddenly begins to have an unwavering faith in what the beauty specialist recommends.

If life were a moving picture, women would supply 90 per cent. of all the talking titles.

Benedicts are like sheep. Both are known regularly by their masters.

Nature is infallible. You can tell the age of a horse by its teeth, and the age of a woman generally by how old her husband is.

The fellow who jokingly refers to his wife as the "sweet woman" has a sneaking suspicion, even if it with some bitter thoughts.

Let me be Chinese Said Ted

WE'LL SAY SO

THE weather man of a South-east town said it would rain one day last week, and by hook it did. Now he's anxious to face the ridicule of his friends.

The tariff is a good thing for the country. It gives us something to cuss at besides cross word puzzles we can't solve.

Cheoptra. — the first vampire, had a lot to contend with, but not near as much as the first umpire.

The President has two pets, a dog and a canary. Congress has a pet, too. It's called the people otherwise known as the goat.

It has been a long time since a professor of something or other had found a substitute for something or other.

Man will not have reached the height of efficiency until he can shave with one hand, do all the arduous wife demands of him with the other and smoke a cigar at the same time.

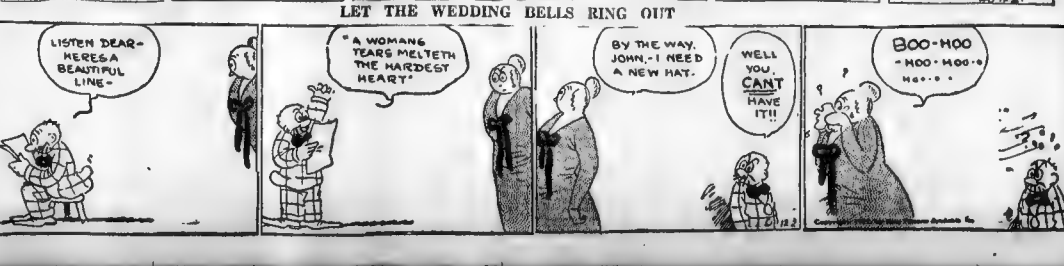

JERRY ON THE JOB

US BOYS

THE THIMBLE THEATRE

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

The Boston American will pay $1 for every letter published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment in My Life" Address Embarrassing Moments, Boston American.
The other day I had two letters calling on me and I made some tea for them before they went, and when they started to do their thing they both laughed at me, for in my hurry I had put salt in the sugar bowl instead of sugar, and I never was so embarrassed as it was the first time they had been at my house.

EVA JOHNSON
No. 39 Parker Street, Quincy, Mass.
Let me be Chinese Said Ted

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston American.
My little cousin, aged five, put his shoes on the wrong feet and when his mother told him he had them on the wrong feet, he looked surprised and said, "Why Mamma, I haven't any other feet to put them on."

MINNIE FISHER
No. 102 Englewood Avenue, Brooklyn, Mass.
Let me be Chinese Said Ted

SIGNS

"KEEP off the grass."
"Beware the dog."
"Keep to the right."
"No road crossing; look out for cars."
"Danger."
"No entry on the dotted line."
A bulging hip pocket.
Gathering puckers on the brow of the impatient housewife.
The late election returns.

Let me be Chinese Said Ted

Very Likely

An officer of a certain regiment was one morning inspecting his company on parade when he came to a man who had evidently not shaved for some days. Halting in front of the man, he said: "How is it you've not shaved this morning?"
"I have, sir," was the reply.
"How dare you tell me that," said the officer, "with a beard on you like that!"
"Well, sir," was the reply, "it's like this. There's only one shaving place in our room, and there was nine of us shaving at the same time, and maybe I shaved some other chap's face."

MAGAZINE PAGE

A Fast Growing Tree
Of all the hard, fine-grained woods, the eucalyptus is said to grow most rapidly. Seedlings have been known to grow six inches a day, and one tree in California attained a height of 125 feet in nine years.

WOMAN OF THE EAST

SUPPRESSED BY JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

This startling and intensely interesting story of the Cherry Blossom Kingdom, telling what the Japanese think of women, was suppressed by the Japanese government. The expose has stunned Europe and opened the eyes of the world to what has really been going on. John Paris, the author, was an English diplomat there for years.

THE CHARACTERS IN THE STORY:

THE HONORABLE GEOFFREY BARRINGTON, son of Lord Brandon, a Captain in the British Army, resigns his commission when he weds ASAKO FULMANN, heiress, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by LADY EVERINGTON, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two. At the reception toast are drunk to the closer union of Britain and Japan, but both British and Japanese diplomats to the distinguished company avoid the suggestion that the couple visit Japan, as appears to be their desire. Some of the reception guests frankly question the wisdom of the marriage, and doubt the possibility of a happy life for the pair. Lady Everington, in her anxiety for the young Captain, who has been her special protegee, intervenes.

COURT SAITO, the Japanese Ambassador, who tells her the Fulmanns belong to the nouveaux riches of Japan, but give little information of their origin or the source of their wealth. A visit to his wife's garden, the Murasaki, a Japanese garden, is made, and the Fulmanns among the cosmopolitans of Deauville, bridge the desire to see Japan. About the ship they meet.

VISCOUNT KAMUKURA, returning home to wed a bride he has never seen. A stop at Nagasaki is the first sight of Japan. A part of the celebration is the Gaiety dance, seen by Barrington. He learns from the talk of Americans and Englishmen that marriages of Japanese women are not favorably regarded.

TANAKA, a nondescript Japanese, attaches himself to Barrington and accompanies him to Tokyo, where Geoffrey meets REGGIE FORSYTH, attorney to the American Embassy, musical and romantic, who has just been transferred from Paris.

YAE SMITH, daughter of a Japanese mother and an English father, last of her kind in Japan. She is the partner in the marriage of Barrington.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

ASAKO FULMANN, daughter of Japanese parents who and daughter of a French nobleman, brought up and educated in French convent schools and introduced to London society by Lady Everington, a brilliant matchmaker, who did not foresee the result of the bringing together of the two.

He found two evil-eyed hooligans posted at the gate looking. Her eyes were red with weeping.

"Let me say at once," observed Reggie, as he offered her a chair, "that I am in no way responsible for your husband's shortcomings. I have too many of my own."

Asako could never understand Reggie when he talked in that sarcastic tone.

"I want to know exactly what happened," she begged. "I have no one else who can tell me."

"Your husband says that nothing actually happened," replied Reggie brutally.

The girl realized that this statement was far from being the vindication of Geoffrey which she had begun to hope for.

"But what did you actually see?" she asked.

"I saw Miss Smith with your husband," said Reggie. "I was in my house, but he had been asked my leave first."

Asako shivered.

"But do you think Geoffrey had been—love-making to Miss Smith?"

"I don't know," said Reggie wearily. "From what I heard, I think Miss Smith was doing most of the love-making to Geoffrey, but he did not seem to object to the process."

Asako's yearnings for proof of her husband's innocence were crushed.

"What shall I do?" she pleaded.

"I'm sure I don't know," said Reggie. "I can only advise you to be as patient as possible."

Asako fell in love with women in England?

"Possibly," said Reggie. "I'm sure I don't know."

"I'm sure I don't know," said Reggie. "I can only advise you to be as patient as possible."

Asako fell in love with women in England?

"Possibly," said Reggie. "I'm sure I don't know."

"I'm sure I don't know," said Reggie. "I can only advise you to be as patient as possible."

Asako fell in love with women in England?

"Possibly," said Reggie. "I'm sure I don't know."

"I'm sure I don't know," said Reggie. "I can only advise you to be as patient as possible."

Asako fell in love with women in England?

"Well, dear lady, if you wish to stop in Japan much longer, you must be taking more care of your health."

"No—going out week—going home."

He sat down at the piano, and the music was heard in the room.

"I'll go out to Maxine's. I've done with love's dream."

The girl will laugh and I've done with love's dream."

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

There was a soldier. Are you going to stop in Japan much longer, you must be taking more care of your health."

"No—going out week—going home."

He sat down at the piano, and the music was heard in the room.

"I'll go out to Maxine's. I've done with love's dream."

The girl will laugh and I've done with love's dream."

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

There was a soldier. Are you going to stop in Japan much longer, you must be taking more care of your health."

"No—going out week—going home."

He sat down at the piano, and the music was heard in the room.

"I'll go out to Maxine's. I've done with love's dream."

The girl will laugh and I've done with love's dream."

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Lois, Dodo, Zouk, and the other girls were in the room.

Protecting Wild Bird Life
What the Audubon Societies have accomplished in protecting wild bird life in this country an international committee just formed in London hopes to do for the world at large. It will spread propaganda in every land.

Great Exposure of How Japanese Treat Their Women

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Before he reached Liverpool war had been declared.

CHAPTER XXII

Fulmann Asako

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

It can be done for as little as $10.00 a month—so easy are the terms made by the dealers in Musical Instruments who are advertising in The American's "Musical Instruments" columns over in the Classified Section.

and not only are good pianos offered here—but most any instrument which you may desire is obtainable in this market.

Read carefully down the following list:

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

Send Home a Piano For Christmas

